to escape to South Africa
25 – 28 June 2009

25 June

Catch your flight from London Heathrow to Johannesburg.

26 – 28 June

2 nights at Casa Kaya on a bed & breakfast basis

Combining the luxury of a guesthouse and warmth of a home, Casa Kaya is located in a quiet suburb within easy reach of central Pretoria, the Pilanesberg Game Reserve and Sun City.

Each of the 16 en suite rooms at this guesthouse is unique, with collectables and art from the far corners of Africa and the Orient offsetting the magnificent interiors. Casa Kaya affords its guests the opportunity of experiencing opulence with an enticing African style. Each room exudes a comfortable and relaxing atmosphere and has been designed to be unique in every way. All rooms have air-conditioning, a private balcony, bar fridge, fan, hair dryer, heater, ironing board and iron, satellite TV, safe, tea/coffee making facilities and under floor heating. The hotel also offers 24 hour security, CCTV monitoring, secure off-street parking and a laundry service.

Fine Dining at Casa Kaya is a sumptuous feast, with favourites such as scallop carpaccio, sautéed saddle of rabbit with chocolate jus, and Monkfish with a prawn and saffron potato sauce, complemented by a fine selection of over 70 fine wines.

27 June

Second test at Loftus Versfeld, Pretoria.

Loftus Versfeld was first built in 1923 and now holds a capacity of 60,000 people. Loftus is home to The Bulls in both Currie Cup and Super 14's rugby as well as Mamelodi Sundowns who are a Pretoria based soccer team in the South African Premier Soccer League. Loftus will also host several matches in the 2010 FIFA World Cup.
